WILL NOT MAKE THE RACE FOR GOVERNOR

Doctors Will Ask the Next Legislature for an Appropriation to Establish and Maintain a Tuberculosis Hospital.

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, June 7 .- (Special.)-W. Bryan says he believes he can accomplish more in national politics than he can in state politics and for that reason does not desire to be the fusion nominee for gov-He makes this declaration in response to an editorial which recently appeared in the Lincoln Daily Post, the local fusion organ. The Post reproduced ex-Benator Allen's editorial utterance in this regard and added that there was not a candidate for governor in either the democratic or populist party who would not throw up his hat for Mr. Bryan if he would consent to the nomination. Mr. Bryan

Please say that I am not and can not be a candidate. I believe I can accomplish more in national politics than I can in state politics, and besides I do not intend to stand in the way of democrats and populists who have given me such loyal support. There are a dozen or more who can poil the entire fusion strength, and there is no reason why my name should be mentioned in connection with this office. The next issue of the Commoner will contain my reply to Senator Alien. I am obliged for the kind words, but the parties must pick out another man.

Motion to Instruct Brings Out a Warm Debate in the Convention.

OVERTURNS A PREVIOUS COMPROMISE Had Been Agreed that Delegation

Should Be for Him for Lieutenant Governor and Crounse for Governor, but Uninstructed.

gram.)-The Dodge county republican convention today passed a resolution instructing the delegation for Holbrook for lieutenant governor by a vote of 59 to 107. after an animated discussion in which Alexder Ross of Scribner, L. D. Richards and Mr. Holbrook each had their say. Marr of Fremont was chairman and J. C. Newson of North Bend, secretary, with J. C. Cook of Fremont, assistant secretary. It was the largest republican convention ever held in the county, every precinct but one being represented by full delegations. When the convention met this afternoon after a permanent organization, the comvicted was the killing by shooting with a promise agreed upon between the leaders of the Holbrook and Crounse factions was cessful in three other attempts at his life | read. It provided that all the delegates at various times prior to the time of the selected should be Holbrook men, but half of them should be Crounse men, for governor; that Mr. Holbrook should be condeep well onto a pipe protruding from the suited in regard to naming the delegation bottom, poisoning him with deadly drugs, and that no formal instructions should be which they put into his victuals, and passed. Richards spoke a few words in support of the compromise. Holbrook wanted the convention to understand that he was a Crounse man but thought he ought to have the delegation for lieutenant governor. He paid a high tribute to Crounse but was opposed to a Crounse delegation against his interests.

Ross Hammond got the floor and said that his word had been questioned and that It had been said by several that he had given an untrue statement of the compromise in the Tribune. If he had done so it was under a misapprehension of the facts and because he did not have much to do with Mr. Richards. A motion was then select delegates to the state and congressional conventions, the motion being substantially according to the terms of the compromise. It was carried without opposition though the ayes were pretty weak in the Holbrook delegation. The following delegates were chosen:
